Hamilton, Ont., June 21.—Francis J. Pons showed into a good two-year-old here today in Judge Wright, a bay coil by Superman—Debacle. He was in with some good maidens in the second race, a dash of twe furlougs, and won with great ease after leading for the last four and a half furlous: of the trip. The Whitney coil. Oliver Lodge, had worked fast chough for this tace to warrant the clockers and hotseshere accepting even money about his chances. They figured that there was not a maiden in the country that could give him ten pounds and more especially with Butwell in the saddle. Judge Wright invoved a stumbling block, however, and accomplished the unlecked for. He was ridden by Forguson, a factor of the same of the was ridden by Forguson. In the Spring Brevery Skes Thomas Healey uncovered a speed marvel in Genesta, a daughter of Roomstick—L'Alonette. The Relmont entry, Rock View and Farrier, ruled a olds-on, the dependence being Rock View. The latter ran a disappointing nece, fuishing last and beaien off. Genesta left the barrier like a quarter horse and spread-eagled her opposition, opening up a commanding lead and holding the others safe all the way. At the finish size left Farrier, the brother to Fair Play, by a counle of longth. The five furlongs were run in 59%. Which canals the Canadian record for the distance. The fractional time was: 22%. 46%, 59%. Genesta was the seventh winner from the Wilson stable at this meeting, and incidentally it was the second stake for the New York turfman, vesterday's feature, the Contangent Stakes, having been won by Altamashi. Dubaine, in charge of the Pinkerton forces here, gathered in a couple of alleged pick-posters from Chiego this afternoon In the betting and the part were turned over to local officers, who exact the couple of the canadian Racing Associations between the couple of the Charleston track.

WORK BEGINS AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

Havre de Crace, Md., June 21.—Work was begun on the proposed new race track on the old Schatz farm, near here, yesterday. The track, a unite affair, is being louit on a level tract of land owned by John J. Mathon and others, of Baltimore, and overlooks the headwaters of the Chesapeake Bay.

The location is ideal, being close to the main lines of both the Peansylvania, Baltimore and Washington and Baltimore and Washington and Baltimore and thin Railroads. It is said that a large hotel will be creeted near the grounds, within the city limits, so as to come noder the liquor fleens, laws of flavre de Grace, and the whole course will be planned and operated on a plane shollar to that at Pimileo. It is hoped to complete the work by August.

THE WIDOW MOON A BARGAIN YEARLING.

Cincinnati, O., June 21.—Phil T. Chinn bred The Widow Moon, which appears to be the best two-year-old filly in training. W. M. Wallace bought the filly for R. P. Marshall, of Georgetown, Ky., at Lexington last fail for $125. Her dam, Slippery, was bred by James R. Keene. She is by the grent Commundo and is out of Skim, by Kingston, her dam being tillde, by Chippendale. The Widow Moon is already looked upon as the prospective winner of the Keotucky Oaks of 1913, as she seems to be a stayer, as well as the possessor of brilliant speed.

Newton Bennington, who has been an inmate for some time past of the Slate Homeopathic Hospital at Middletown, N. Y., was discharged from that institution by Supreme Court Justice Kelby in Brooklyn Thursday, the court holding that he was competent to care for himself and his property. Mr. Bennington owes his release to habeas corpus procedulings brought in his behalf by a friend, Dr. E. H. Heard, of Freeport, N. Y.

LONG SHOT DAY AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash., June 21.—Long shots captured five of the seven races at Alan today. The eard was made up of ordinary selling platers, with the exception of the fourth race, which fell to the three-year-old gelding Three Links. There was considerable interference and rough riding just after the start. Tommy Metice suffered most, being nearly knocked down. Roy Junior ruled favorite and he ran a dull race.

down. Roy Junior ruled to the field of eight horses duil race.

The sevenlh race saw the field of eight horses go down the backstretch for over a quarter of a go at the winner, was shut off just before the half-mile ground was reached, but gamely came from last position to win in a drive.

Banorella was claimed out of the fourth race by C. B. Ray, the owner of Sancho Panza, for $975.

LADIES' DAY AT OKLAHOMA CITY.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 21.—This was ladles' day and ideal weather helped to bring out the largest gathering of the fair sex that has ever attended the races here. Lertrade Dix, neglected in the betting, easily captured the fifth race, yvonne, another long shot, was second and Julia B., third. Ferrona, the favorite, propped at liestart and seemed to sulk, refusing to extend herself at any part of the race. Ochre Conrt, the second choice, ran out on the lurns.

Jockey Barham carried off the riding honors with two firsts and a third out of three mounts.
